NEWSLETTER JULY 2024

---

Good morning, Redcliffe Branch National Seniors. Our final newsletter for The Kokoda Room of the Redcliffe RSL. Your next general meeting will be held at the Queensland Country Women's Association (QCWA) Hall on the corner of Victoria Avenue and Georgina Street, Woody Point. Behind the Bramble Bay Bowls Club. There maybe a few little teething issues with this move, but I'm sure we can sort them as we go along. If you need to use the bus service to attend the meetings at the QCWA hall, there are two bus stops nearby. One in Victoria Avenue and one in Hornibrook Esplanade. We will still have our convivial morning tea, our door and raffle prizes, our guest speakers. We sincerely hope you all still feel able to attend. See you there.

Kate Hopkins President.

WELFARE

Please notify Jenny Ryan 3204 9121 of any member you know who is ill or injured of a recent date

Our July BBQ was very well attended by 49 members at Crockatt Park, even though it was rather cold due to the breeze from the west!! As usual Doug, Mick, Allan and Ken got on with the job of cooking, whilst everyone else got on with the job of eating!! Even though cold, we still had a good time, getting warmed in the sun when we could.

BARBEQUES

Margaret Whitfield 0458 446 990
Please put your names down today with Sandra for next Friday, 2nd August.

Nearly forty members and guests turned out for our monthly Dine out at the Golf Club. I don't think anyone was disappointed at the meals on offer or the service, even though they were busy!! With a big golf contest underway and the regular card players also there, the caterers were flat out, but we still had good service. And for those that like it, apparently the liver and bacon was said to be absolutely excellent!!

On a beautiful winter's day, we headed off for our Christmas in July Lunch at the Toogoolawah Hotel. We stopped for morning tea at Yowie Park in Kilcoy before a short drive to the hotel. Unfortunately, one of our people had the misfortune to step in some dog poo that required a bit of a clean-up. They put on a very nice 2 course Christmas lunch for us. The staff did an excellent job seeing as they catered for over 100 people for lunch as Redcliffe Probus was also in attendance. After lunch we had time to check out the main street of Toogoolawah before making our way back to Redcliffe arriving around 4pm. Great day had by all.
